Columbus, Ohio – Slick Watts has been selected by OurStage.com and Radio One Inc. to be the opening act for the Russ Parr Bus Tour in Cincinnati, Ohio on Wednesday, August 9th. This national tour will be in stopping in ten cities nationwide. This family friendly event has help launch the careers of people such as Chingy, Nick Cannon, Bow Wow, Ciara, Chris Brown, DJ Unk, Soulja Boy, Trey Songz, Keri Hilson, Jazmine Sullivan, Plies, Mario and many more. Thousands of votes were cast on OurStage.com and Slick Watts stood out to the judges and was hand selected out of the Top 20 entries.

The Russ Parr Morning Show (www.rparr.com) is syndicated in 23 US cities and is heard by nearly 2 million weekday listeners. The 10 city bus tour will start in Cleveland, OH on August 3rd and finish in Fayetteville on August 14th. This family friendly event is open to all ages and will begin at 6:00a.m. and conclude at 10:00am in each city. Slick Watts was chosen to open the Cincinnati stop with this motivational track “Yes We Can” that he wrote in 2008 before the historic election of our 44th President, Barack Obama.

During a very busy summer, Slick has also performed in New York City for the “America’s Next Urban Superstar” Competition and was invited to the Urban Music Awards as a VIP guest with the likes of KRS-1, DJ Grandmasterflash and SwizzBeats. He was also nominated as “Best Midwest Artist” at the 7th Annual Underground Music Awards to be held at the B.B. King Theater in Time Square on August 23rd. Voting is currently online until August 6th. Visit www.WattsyMusic.com to vote today. Most recently he was featured as the “Heater of the Day” on the top hip hop website AllHipHop.com. Slick Watts is proud to be supported by two international companies. His Official Clothing Partner is the legendary athletic brand Stall & Dean/Rucker Apparel that has been around since 1898. His Official Shoe Partner is Kashi Kicks. Known as “jewelry for your feet”, He has been working with Kashi since 2007.
